

The Diplomatic Privileges (International Labour Organisation) Order

B.R.O.N. 14/50.

(Made under section 2 of the Enactment.)

[31st January, 1950.]

INDEX

	Page
1. Citation	347
2. Organisation is one of which the U.K. and other foreign sovereign Powers are members	347
3. Organisation to be a body corporate	347
4. Organisation to have same inviolability as envoy of accredited foreign sovereign Power	347
5. Organisation to have same exemption and relief from taxes and rates as foreign sovereign Power	348
6. Organisation to have exemption from customs duties on goods imported for its official use and on its official publications	348
7. Organisation to have exemption from restrictions on im- port or export in case of goods required for its official use or in case of its official publications	348
8. Organisation may send telegrams at press rates	348
9. Privileges and immunities of representatives of member governments and of members of the Governing Body of the Organisation	348
10. Privileges and immunities of high officials of the Organisation	349
11. Privileges and immunities of persons serving on com- mittees of or employed on missions on behalf of the Organisation	349
12. Privileges and immunities of other officials of the Organisation	350
13. List of officials etc. of the Organisation to be compiled and published	350

1. This order may be cited as the Diplomatic Privileges Citation.
(International Labour Organisation) Order.

THE ORGANISATION

2. The International Labour Organisation (hereinafter re- Organisation ferred to as "the Organisation") is an organisation of which Her is one of Britannic Majesty's Government in the United Kingdom and the which the governments of foreign sovereign Powers are members. U.K. and other foreign sovereign Powers are members.

3. The Organisation shall have the legal capacity of a body Organisation corporate and, except in so far as in any particular case it has to be a body expressly waived its immunity, immunity from suit and process. corporate.
No waiver of immunity shall be deemed to extend to any measure of execution.

4. The Organisation shall have the like inviolability of offi- Organisation cial archives and premises occupied as offices as is accorded in to have same respect of official archives and premises of an envoy of a foreign inviolability sovereign Power accredited to Her Britannic Majesty. as envoy of accredited foreign sovereign Power.

Organisation to have same exemption and relief from taxes and rates as foreign sovereign Powers.

5. The Organisation shall have the like exemption or relief from taxes and rates, other than taxes on the importation of goods, as is accorded to a foreign sovereign Power.

Organisation to have exemption from customs duties on goods imported for its official use and on its official publications.

6. The Organisation shall have exemption from taxes on the importation of goods directly imported by the Organisation for its official use in the State or for exportation, or on the importation of any of the publications of the Organisation directly imported by it, such exemption to be subject to compliance with such conditions as the Controller of Customs may prescribe for the protection of the revenue.

Organisation to have exemption from restrictions on import and export in case of goods required for its official use or in case of its official publications.

7. The Organisation shall have exemption from prohibitions and restrictions on importation or exportation in the case of goods directly imported or exported by the Organisation for its official use and in the case of any publications of the Organisation directly imported or exported by it.

Organisation may send telegrams at press rates.

8. The Organisation shall have the right to avail itself, for telegraphic communications sent by it and containing only matters for publication by the press or for broadcasting (including communications addressed to or despatched from places outside the State), of any reduced rates applicable for the corresponding service in the case of press telegrams.

REPRESENTATIVES OF MEMBERS: MEMBERS OF THE GOVERNING BODY OF THE INTERNATIONAL LABOUR OFFICE

Privileges and immunities of representatives of member governments and of members of the Governing Body of the Organisation.

9.—(1) Except in so far as any privilege or immunity is waived, in the case of representatives of member governments, by the governments whom they represent; and in the case of members and deputy members of the Governing Body of the International Labour Office and their substitutes, by the Governing Body, representatives of member governments and the employers' and workers' members and deputy members of the Governing Body of the International Labour Office and their substitutes shall enjoy—

(a) while exercising their functions as such, and during their journey to and from the place of meeting, immunity from personal arrest or detention and from seizure of their personal baggage and inviolability for all papers and documents;

(b) immunity from legal process of every kind in respect of words spoken or written and all acts done by them in their capacity as representatives or as members of the Governing Body of the International Labour Office, as the case may be; and

(c) while exercising their functions and during their journey to and from the place of meeting, the like exemption or relief from taxes as is accorded to an envoy of a foreign sovereign Power accredited to Her Britannic Majesty, save that the relief allowed, shall not include relief from customs and excise duties except in respect of goods imported as part of their personal baggage. They shall not, where the incidence of any form of taxation depends upon residence, be deemed to be resident in the State during any period when they are present in the State while exercising their functions and during their journey to and from the place of meeting.

The provisions of this paragraph shall not apply to British subjects whose usual place of abode is in the State.

(2) For the purposes of the application of this order, the expression "representatives of member governments" shall be deemed to include their official staffs, accompanying them as such representatives, as delegates, deputy delegates, advisers, technical experts or secretaries of delegations.

(3) The provisions of the preceding paragraphs of this article shall not confer any immunity or privilege upon any person as the representative of Her Britannic Majesty's Government in the State or a member of the staff of such a representative, or any person who is a British subject and who is not the representative of a Government of Her Britannic Majesty other than Her Britannic Majesty's Government in the State or a member of the staff of and accompanying any such representative.

HIGH OFFICIALS

10. Except in so far as in any particular case any privilege or immunity is waived by the Organisation, officers of the Organisation holding the offices of Director-General, Deputy Director-General and Assistant Director-General shall be accorded in respect of themselves, their spouses and children under the age of twenty-one, the like immunity from suit and legal process, the like inviolability of residence and the like exemption or relief from taxes as is accorded to an envoy of a foreign sovereign Power accredited to Her Britannic Majesty, his spouse and children, including exemption from income tax in respect of emoluments received by them as officers of the Organisation.

Privileges and immunities of high officials of the Organisation.

PERSONS SERVING ON COMMITTEES OF OR EMPLOYED ON MISSIONS ON BEHALF OF THE ORGANISATION.

11. Except in so far as in any particular case any privilege or immunity is waived by the Organisation, persons (other than officials of the Organisation) serving on committees of, or employed on missions on behalf of the Organisation shall enjoy—

Privileges and immunities of persons serving on committees of or employed on missions on behalf of the Organisation.

(a) while exercising their functions as such, and during their journey to and from the place of meeting, immunity from personal arrest or detention and from seizure of their personal baggage and inviolability for all papers and documents relating to the work of the Organisation; and

(b) immunity from legal process of every kind in respect of words spoken or written and all acts done by them in the exercise of their functions. Such immunity shall continue notwithstanding that the persons concerned are no longer employed on missions on behalf of the Organisation.

OTHER OFFICIALS OF THE ORGANISATION

Privileges and immunities of other officials of the Organisation. 12. Except in so far as in any particular case any privilege or immunity is waived by the Organisation, all officials of the Organisation, other than those referred to in article 10 of this order, shall enjoy—

(a) immunity from suit and legal process in respect of words spoken or written and all acts done by them in the course of the performance of their official duties; and

(b) exemption from income tax in respect of emoluments received by them as officers and servants of the Organisation.

GENERAL

List of officials etc. of the Organisation to be compiled and published. 13. The names of the persons to whom the provisions of articles 9, 10, 11 and 12, apply shall be set forth in a list compiled and published from time to time by the Resident under subsection (3) of section 2 of the Diplomatic Privileges (Extension) Enactment and such list shall show in regard to each person the date as from which, for the purposes of this order, he first held the office or employment in question, and the date when he ceased to hold that office or employment.

(The Diplomatic Privileges (International Civil Aviation Organisation) Order, 1950, has been omitted by virtue of the Schedule to the Revised Edition of the Subsidiary Legislation Enactment, 1956, as amended by the Revised Edition of the Subsidiary Legislation Enactment (Amendment to Schedule) Order, 1957.)