No. S 56.—The Customs Enactment, 1954.

In exercise of the powers conferred upon him by section Enactment 133 of the Customs Enactment, 1954, the Sultan in Council No. 5/54. has made the following regulations:—

Citation and

1. These regulations may be cited as the Customs (Amendment) Regulations, 1956, and shall be read as one with the Customs Regulations, 1955, hereinafter referred to as the Principal Regulations and shall come into force on the 1st day of July, 1956.

Amendment of regulation 18 of the Principal Regulations. 2. Regulation 18 of the Principal Regulations is amend- G.N. No. S. 11/56. ed by the deletion of the words "at a rate equivalent to three-fifths of the rates, specified in the Customs (Establishment of Customs Warehouses and Warehouse Rent) Order, 1955," and the substitution therefor of the words "at the rates set forth in the Seventh Schedule hereto".

Insertion of a new Seventh Schedule. 3. The following additional Schedule is added after the Sixth Schedule to the Principal Regulations as the Seventh Schedule —

SEVENTH SCHEDULE

(Regulation 18)

Rates of Warehouse Rent.

- (1) The minimum rent for any period of deposit shall be 20 cents.
- (2) For the first week or part thereof thereof reckoned on the gross packed weight.
- (3) For the second week 10 cents per picul or part or part thereof thereof reckoned on the gross packed weight.
- (4) For the third week 10 cents per picul or part thereof thereof reckoned on the gross packed weight.
- (5) For the fourth week 20 cents per picul or part thereof thereof reckoned on the gross packed weight.
- (6) For any subsequent 30 cents per picul or part period per week or part thereof gross packed weight.

Made by the Sultan in Council this 23rd day of June, 1956.

MOHAMED TAIB Clerk of Council.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

The rates for storage in warehouses other than Customs warehouses (3/5ths of the rates for Customs warehouses) are too high and not conducive to the establishment of warehouses by private enterprise.

2. This notification amends Regulation 18 of the Customs Regulations, 1955, by providing new rates for warehouse rent. British Resident's Office, Brunei, 23rd June, 1956.