THE BRUNEI
NATIONALITY ENACTMENT, 1961
(No. 4 of 1961)

THE BRUNEI NATIONALITY
(REGISTRATION) (AMENDMENT)
REGULATION, 1963

In exercise of the powers conferred upon him by section 18 of the Brunei Nationality Enactment, 1961, the Sultan in Council hereby makes the following Regulations :

Title and commencement.

1. This Regulation may be cited as the Brunei Nationality (Registration) (Amendment) Regulation, 1963, and shall be read as one with the Brunei Nationality (Registration) Regulations, 1961, hereinafter referred to as the Principal Regulations.

2. The Principal Regulations are hereby amended by inserting the following new Regulation immediately after Regulation 8 —

“Language
Boards.

8A. (1) The Sultan in Council shall designate for such areas as he may think fit panels of suitable persons from whom Language Boards may be constituted in accordance with the provisions of section 15 of the Enactment. Such panels shall consist of not less than twelve persons.

(2) For the purpose of determining whether any applicant for registration or naturalisation as a subject of the Sultan has a knowledge of the Malay language and is able to speak the Malay language as required by section 5(5)(a) or section 8(1)(e) of the Enactment, the Sultan in Council may appoint a Language Board in accordance with section 15 of the Enactment from the panel of persons designated under paragraph (1) of this Regulation for the appropriate area. Of the three members of the Board, one member shall be a Malay, one member shall, where possible, be of the same community as the applicant.

(3) A person shall be deemed to have the prescribed knowledge of the Malay language and able to speak the Malay language with proficiency if, in the opinion of the Language Board, he is able to say and understand what a person of his standing is likely to wish to say or understand in Malay in normal intercourse with a person of a different community.”
