Articulating Female Citizenship in Norsiah Gapar's Pengabdian

Chapter Full-text available Jan 2018 · The Southeast Asian Woman Writes Back

 Kathrina Mohd Daud

The first female Bruneian to have won the SEA Asia Write Award in 2009, Norsiah Haji Gapar is unique in Bruneian literature for both her medium—the novel and short story rather than poetry—and her consideration of contemporary female issues in her fiction. Her significance is endorsed at the national level with her first novel,...

Abstract

Creative:Jongsarat is a full-length fictional novel set in Brunei. It follows the lives of two cousins as they struggle with the same decision over the course of one summer. Rijal, the black sheep of the family, must try to come to terms with his fears and his troubled past when he finds out his girlfriend is pregnant. Hana, the family's golden girl and hope for the
