SUBSIDIARY LEGISLATION

Rules made under section 91

ROAD TRAFFIC (COMPOSITION OF OFFENCES) RULES

Commencement: 1st January 2014

Citation

1. These Rules may be cited as the Road Traffic (Composition of Offences) Rules.

Offences which may be compounded

2. The offences set out in the Schedule may be compounded by the Commissioner of Police or any police officer authorised by him in writing in that behalf, or the Director or any person authorised by him in writing in that behalf in accordance with section 91(1).

Form

3. An offer to compound shall be in such form as the Commissioner of Police or Director may determine.

Methods of payment

4. (1) When an offer to compound an offence is made and accepted, payment for it shall be made within 14 days from the date the offer to compound was made —

(a) by cash to the Commissioner of Police, the Director or a police officer or person authorised to make the offer to compound pursuant to rule 2, as the case may be, at the place where the offer to compound was made or at the office or police headquarters of the appropriate Police District specified in the offer to compound and he shall account for it in the ordinary way and issue a receipt for such payment to the person to whom the offer to compound was made; or

(b) by an electronic fund transfer system whereby payment may be effected by directing the transfer of funds electronically from the bank account of the payer to a bank account designated by the Commissioner of Police or the Director, who shall account for the payment.

- (2) The Commissioner of Police or the Director may stipulate the various electronic fund transfer systems as he may think fit to be used for the purposes of these Rules.

[Subsidiary]

Effect of payment

5. On the payment of such sum of money for the offer to compound, no further proceedings shall be taken against the person who has been reasonably suspected of having committed an offence.

Issue of summons

6. Any person who —

(a) fails to appear at the office or police headquarters of the appropriate Police District specified in the offer to compound;

(b) fails to make payment within the period referred to in rule 4(1); or

(c) furnishes any information which is false or misleading,

shall be issued with a summons.
