PART II

CONSTITUTION

The subordinate
courts

3. Courts of Magistrates shall be the subordinate courts in Brunei with such jurisdiction as is conferred by this Act.

Court houses

4. His Majesty the Sultan and Yang Di-Pertuan may constitute under appropriate names so many Courts of Magistrates as he shall think fit, and shall appoint some place or places as the court house or court houses of each such court.

Seal of
Courts

5. Courts of Magistrates shall have and use as occasion may require a seal or seals of such nature as the Chief Justice may, by notification in the Government Gazette, prescribe.

Process of
Courts

6. All writs, summonses, warrants, orders, notices and other mandatory processes issued by Courts of Magistrates shall be signed by a judicial officer and shall bear the seal of the court issuing the same.

Sitting in camera etc.

7. (1) The place in which any Court of a Magistrate is held, shall be deemed an open and public court to which the public generally may have access:

Provided that —

(a) the court shall have power to hear any proceedings or any part thereof in camera if the court is satisfied that it is expedient in the interests of justice, public security or propriety, or for other sufficient reason so to do; and

(b) the court shall ordinarily exclude witnesses until they give evidence in proceedings where the court is exercising criminal jurisdiction in accordance with section 16.

(2) A Court of a Magistrate may at any time order that no person shall publish the name, address or photograph of any witness in any proceedings or any part thereof or any evidence or any other thing likely to lead to the identification of any such witness; and any person who acts in contravention of any such order shall be liable to a fine of $5,000 and imprisonment for one year.

8. Where any contempt is committed in the face of a Court of a Magistrate, the court may, at any time before rising on the same day, take cognizance of the offence, record the facts constituting the offence and the statement, if any, made by the offender and sentence the offender to a fine of $1,000 and to imprisonment for 6 months: Contempt

Provided that the court may, in its discretion, discharge the offender or remit the punishment on his making an apology to the satisfaction of the court:

And provided further that in any case where the contempt is punishable as an offence under section 175, 178, 179, 180 or 228 of the Penal Code, the court may in lieu of taking cognizance of the offence authorise a prosecution. Cap. 22

PART III

APPOINTMENTS, POWERS AND DUTIES

9. (1) His Majesty may appoint any fit and proper person to be a magistrate. Appointment of Magistrate
~~Magistrate~~

(2) For the purpose of the administration of this Act, His Majesty may appoint a Chief Magistrate who shall have seniority over all other magistrates and over all coroners.

10. (1) His Majesty may appoint a fit and proper person to be a coroner. Coroner

(2) A coroner appointed under this section shall have power to act as a magistrate for the purpose of discharging the functions of a magistrate under Chapter XXX of the Criminal Procedure Code and all things done by a coroner in the due discharge of such functions shall have the same validity and effect as if they had been done by a magistrate; and as respects such functions a coroner shall have the same powers and enjoy the same immunities as if he were a magistrate.

Cap. 7

Appointments of registrar and deputy registrars of

(2) The registrar and deputy registrars shall be ex-officio commissioners for oaths.

Powers and duties of deputy registrars

12. Subject to Rules of Court all the powers and duties conferred and imposed on the registrar may be exercised and performed by a deputy registrar.

Subordinate
officers

13. There shall be attached to the subordinate courts such interpreters, clerks, bailiffs, process servers and other officers as, from time to time, appear to the Chief Justice to be necessary for the administration of justice and the due execution of all powers and duties which are vested in the Courts of Magistrates.

Powers and duties of certain subordinate
officers

14. The bailiffs and process servers shall execute all writs, summonses, warrants, orders, notices and other mandatory processes of the Courts of Magistrates given to them, and shall make a return of the same together with the manner of the execution thereof to the court from which the process issued, and shall arrest and receive all such persons and property as are committed to the custody of the Courts of Magistrates.

Special powers of bailiffs

15. The bailiffs in executing any writ of seizure and sale or any other writ of execution or of distress may effect an entry into any building, and for that purpose if necessary may break open any outer or inner door or window of the building or any receptacle therein, using such force as is reasonably necessary to effect an entry.

PART IV

JURISDICTION

Criminal jurisdiction of Courts of Magistrates

16. A Court of a Magistrate exercising criminal jurisdiction shall have the jurisdiction and powers conferred on it by the Criminal Procedure Code and any other written law.

Criminal jurisdiction of Courts of Magistrates. Cap 7

Civil jurisdiction of Courts of Magistrates

17. (1) Subject to the provisions of this Act and any other written law and subject to Rules of Court, a Court of a Magistrate shall have jurisdiction in every civil proceeding where the amount claimed or the value of the subject matter in dispute does not exceed the appropriate prescribed limit if —

Civil jurisdiction of Courts of Magistrates

(a) the cause of action arose in Brunei; or

(b) the defendant or any one of the defendants at the time of the institution of the proceeding resides or carries on business or has property or personally works for gain in Brunei; or

(c) the facts on which the proceedings are based exist or are alleged to have occurred in Brunei.

(2) Notwithstanding that the amount claimed or the value of the subject matter in dispute exceeds the appropriate prescribed limit, a Court of a Magistrate shall have jurisdiction in any proceeding for the recovery of immovable property, other than proceedings in which there is a genuine dispute as to a title registered under the Land Code, where the rent payable in respect of such property does not exceed $500 per month or such other sum as may be prescribed by Rules of Court in respect of any area specified in such Rules.

(3) A Court of a Magistrate shall have no jurisdiction in proceedings —

(a) concerning any acts done by the order of His Majesty, or of His Majesty in Council, or of the head of any Government Department, or of a judge or another magistrate;

Cap. 40

(b) for the recovery of immovable property where there is a genuine dispute as to a title registered under the Land Code;

(c) for partition of immovable property;

(d) for the specific performance or rescission of contracts;

(e) for the cancellation or rectification of instruments;

(f) for the interpretation of trust instruments or the enforcement or administration of trusts;

(g) for the grant of probate or letters of administration in respect of any deceased person;

(h) for the interpretation of wills or the administration of the estate and effects of any deceased person;

(i) for declaratory decrees.

(4) His Majesty in Council may by order amend any provision of this section.

(5) In this section, "appropriate prescribed limit" means $10,000 or, in the case of the Chief Magistrate, $15,000:

Provided that the Chief Justice may from time to time, with the approval of His Majesty, by notification in the Government Gazette, increase the appropriate prescribed limit in the case of the Chief Magistrate or any other magistrate.

Civil appeals from decisions of Courts of Magistrates

18. (1) Subject to sub-sections (2) and (3) and the provisions of any Rules of Court or of any other written law, an appeal in civil matters shall lie to the High Court —

(a) as of right, from a final judgement of a Court of a Magistrate in any proceedings for the recovery of immovable property or in any proceedings where the amount claimed or the value of the subject matter in dispute exceeds $500;

(b) by leave of a judge,

- (i) from any interlocutory order or decision of a Court of a Magistrate in any proceedings;
- (ii) from a final judgement of a Court of a Magistrate in any proceedings (not being for the recovery of immovable property) where the amount claimed or the value of the subject matter in dispute does not exceed $500;
- (iii) from any order as to costs only; or
- (iv) from an order made by consent of the parties.

(2) Such appeals may be heard before one judge provided that the judge, if he thinks fit, may reserve any

(3) The High Court shall not entertain any appeal under this section unless the appellant has fulfilled all the conditions of appeal imposed in accordance with Rules of Court or any other written law.

(4) In this section, "Rules of Court" means Rules of Court made under the Supreme Court Act.

Cap. 5

Revision of civil proceedings in Courts of Magistrates

Power of High Court to call for records of civil proceedings in Courts of Magistrates

19. The High Court may call for and examine the record of any civil proceedings before any Court of a Magistrate for the purpose of satisfying itself as to the correctness, legality or propriety of any judgement, and as to the regularity of any proceedings of any such court.

Powers of High Court on revision of civil proceedings

20. In the case of any civil proceedings in a Court of a Magistrate the record of which has been called for under section 19, or which otherwise comes to its knowledge, the High Court may give such orders thereon, either by directing a new trial or otherwise, as seem necessary to secure the substantial justice is done.

No revision at instance of party who could have appealed

21. Where an appeal lies (with or without the leave of the High Court) from any judgement of a Court of a Magistrate in any civil matter, and no appeal is brought, no proceeding by way of revision shall be entertained at the instance of a party who could have appealed.

Civil reference by Courts of Magistrates to High Court

Civil references

22. (1) Where before or on the hearing of any civil proceeding in a Court of a Magistrate any question of law arises on which that Court desires to have the opinion of the High Court, the Court of a Magistrate may, either of its own motion, or on the application of any of the parties, draw up a statement of the facts of the case and the point on which an opinion is desired, and refer such statement with its own opinion on the point to the High Court.

(2) The High Court may make such declaration or order on such reference as it thinks fit.

PART V

GENERAL

Miscellaneous

23. (1) A judicial officer shall not be liable to be sued for any act done by him in the discharge of his judicial duty whether or not within the limits of his jurisdiction, provided that he at the time in good faith believed himself to have jurisdiction to do or order the act complained of.

Protection of judicial and other officers

(2) No officer of a Court of a Magistrate charged with the duty of executing any writ, summons, warrant, order, notice or other mandatory process of the Courts of Magistrates shall be liable to be sued for the execution of or attempting to execute such writ, summons, warrant, order notice or other mandatory process, or in respect of any damage caused to any property in effecting or attempting to effect execution, unless he knowingly acted in excess of the authority conferred upon him by such writ, summons, warrant, order, notice or other mandatory process of the court in question, and he shall not be deemed to have acted knowingly in excess of his authority merely by reason of the existence of a dispute as to the ownership of any property seized under any writ or order of execution.

24. A judge shall, in addition to such other powers as may be conferred on him, have all the powers conferred on a magistrate by any written law.
